

Timothy Garton Ash

Author and Acclaimed Contemporary Historian

Timothy features in Time magazine's list of the world's 100 most influential people

Having charted the spectacular transformation of Europe over the last quarter century, his work focuses on the emerging geopolitical triangle between Europe, the United States and Asia, and on how we can avoid a "Clash of Civilizations" with Islam.

TOPICS:

- The Future of the Triangle (G3) - EU, USA and China
- Freedom of Speech in the Age of the Internet- Lessons learned from Wikileaks
- Is Multiculturalism Dead?
- History of the Present

LANGUAGES:

Timothy presents in English, German and Polish

PUBLICATIONS:

- 2016 Free Speech: Ten Principles for a Connected World
- 2009 Facts are Subversive: Political Writing from a Decade without a Name
- 2004 Free World- America, Europe and the Surprising Future of the West
- 1999 History of the Present: Essays, Sketches, and Dispatches from Europe in the 1990s
- 1998 The File: A Personal History
- 1993 In Europe's Name: Germany and the Divided Continent

IN DETAIL:

Prof. Garton Ash's honours include the David Watt Memorial Prize, Commentator of the Year in the 'What the Papers Say' annual awards for 1989, the Premio Napoli, the Imre Nagy Memorial Plaque, the Hoffmann von Fallersleben Prize for political writing, the Order of Merit from Germany, Poland and the Czech Republic, and the British CMG. In 2005, he featured in a list of 100 top global public intellectuals chosen by the journals Prospect and Foreign Policy, and in Time magazine's list of the world's 100 most influential people. In 2006, he was awarded the George Orwell Prize for political writing. He is also Isaiah Berlin Professorial Fellow at St Antony's College, Oxford and a Senior Fellow at the Hoover Institution, Stanford University.

WHAT HE OFFERS YOU:

One of Britain's most influential and admired commentators, Timothy offers audiences his expert views on exactly why the United States can never rule the world on its own, why the new, enlarged Europe can only realise its aspirations in a larger, transatlantic community and why the conflicts in the Middle East and the rise of Asia can only be addressed by a wider community of democracies. Sweeping historical insight related in his own conversational style, help his incisive commentary on world affairs stand apart from its competitors.

HOW HE PRESENTS:

A compelling and enlightening speaker, few historians match Timothy Garton Ash for his combination of clarity and reportorial brilliance. His superlative presentations defy conventional wisdom and challenge contemporary thinking.