

Rt Hon. Lord Hague

Former Conservative Party Leader and former Foreign Secretary.

A leading political figure and expert on current affairs

The Rt Hon Lord Hague of Richmond, William Hague, served for 26 years in the British House of Commons until he stood down in 2015. In that time, he served in many senior roles, including Leader of the House of Commons, but is best known as the Leader of the Conservative party, 1997-2001, and First Secretary of State and Foreign Secretary, 2010-2014.

TOPICS:

- Leadership
- European Policy Making
- International Relations
- Politics
- Current Affairs

LANGUAGES:

He presents in English.

IN DETAIL:

He now pursues a wide range of business and charitable activities and is a well-known writer of historical biographies and a columnist of The Times. In November 2020 Lord Hague became Chair of the Royal Foundation of The Prince and Princess of Wales. Educated in Oxford and at INSEAD, he started his career in politics when he was elected the Member of Parliament for Richmond in 1989 before moving on to work for the former Chancellor in 1990. A man of great self-belief and utter conviction, William Hague first spoke at the Tory Blackpool conference when he was just 16 years old, becoming leader of the world's oldest political party twenty years later.

WHAT HE OFFERS YOU:

Drawing on his extensive experience in politics, William Hague offers tremendous insights into national and global political developments and the business scene. He also demonstrates what it takes to successfully negotiate on the international platform.

HOW HE PRESENTS:

An excellent communicator with a tough resilience that has seen him through political setbacks, William Hague is an optimist and a people's politician. He is now in great demand as a speaker at conferences throughout the UK and Europe.

© 2026 Celebrity Speakers Ltd