

William Hague is best known as the leader of the Conservative Party from 1997 to 2001 and as Chairman of the international Democrat Union. From 2010 to 2014 he was UK Foreign Secretary and served as the Leader of the House of Commons and MP for Richmond (Yorks) from 1989 to 2015. Mr. Hague is Co-Founder of the Preventing Sexual Violence Initiative.

LANGUAGES:

He presents in English.

IN DETAIL:

Educated in Oxford and at INSEAD, he started his career in politics when he was elected the Member of Parliament for Richmond in 1989 before moving on to work for the former Chancellor in 1990. A man of great self-belief and utter conviction, William Hague first spoke at the Tory Blackpool conference when he was just 16 years old, becoming leader of the world's oldest political party twenty years later. Mr Hague's sense of humour and openness has won him a large number of admirers from across the political spectrum. As cross-examiner of Tony Blair in the Commons Chamber, William Hague was at his most confident.

WHAT HE OFFERS YOU:

Drawing on his extensive experience in politics, William Hague offers tremendous insights into national and global political developments and the business scene. He also demonstrates what it takes to successfully negotiate on the international platform.

HOW HE PRESENTS:

An excellent communicator with a tough resilience that has seen him through political setbacks, William Hague is an optimist and a people's politician. He is now in great demand as a speaker at conferences throughout the UK and Europe.